Submission: No rating system will be 'fair' to everyone. The simplest way will be to rate on land valuation of all properties. This is a recognised method for Council rates and has checks and balances. To make a big saving on administration costs it should be collected by Councils as a certain % of rates and the money handed to the LLS for a small admin fee. All ratepayers should pay including Urban but maybe a smaller amount.