

Ms Deborah Cope

Deborah has extensive experience in analysing and reforming governments' economic, social and environmental policies. She has also been involved in developing and implementing competition policy, improving the effectiveness and efficiency of regulation and regulators, and designing and implementing strategies for competitive neutrality between government and private businesses. She has considerable experience in writing government reports and facilitating consultation.

Experience

Tribunal Member

Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal

February 2017 - Present | Sydney, Australia

Commissioner

Victorian Competition and Efficiency Commission

November 2008-March 2015 | Melbourne, Australia

Principal

PIRAC Economics

November 2000- Present

Deputy Executive Director

National Competition Council

June 1996 to November 2000 (4 years) | Sydney, Australia

Deputy Chief Executive Officer

Office of Northern Development

1993 to June 1996 (3 years) | Darwin, Australia

Economist

Industry Commission, Industry Assistance Commission

1985 - 1993 (8 years) | Canberra, Australia

Previous Commission and Board Appointments

- ▼ Commissioner with the Victorian Competition and Efficiency Commission
- ▼ Member of the Board of the Cooperative Research Centre for the Sustainable Development of Tropical Savannas
- ▼ Chair of the Consultative Committee for the Cooperative Research Centre for the Sustainable Development of Tropical Savannas
- ▼ Member of the Board of the Northern Territory Centre for Social Research