

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Tuesday, 4 March 2014

Submission: Warringah Council should be made to live within a budget and be content with the standard rate rise. They should seek to maintain services rather than looking for ways to spend more money to "improve services". In the past they have squandered money on expensive plans to change things such as the walking/cycle tracks round Manly Dam which needed no change whatsoever! This money was a complete waste of funds!