18 August 2021	A close relative of Ms Gamble's works as a manager for Synergies Economic consulting. The relative is an employee and has no ownership interest in the firm.	IPART may engage economic consultants (and has previously engaged Synergies before Ms Gamble's appointment) in the course of its functions	IPART will not engage the relative for services – communicated to Pricing & Policy Division.	Ms Gamble's relative should not be engaged to avoid any appearance of a conflict of interest. The Tribunal may still engage Synergies Economic consulting (without the Tribunal member's close relative on the project team) on the basis that the Tribunal member's interest in or association with Synergies Economic consulting is too remote to be material.
25 August 2021	A close relative of Ms Gamble was involved in an electricity distribution safety incident when an 11 kV conductor (the centre phase of an 11kV feeder running along Wascoe Street, Glenbrook) fell on the bonnet of her car while stopped at a give-way sign.	ENR functions	Noted by the Tribunal	Ms Gamble will not participate in any decisions on action that may be required in relation to this incident
