

Arthur Diakos PSM

Independent Chair, Audit and Risk Committee, Appointed 2 April 2024

Independent Member, Audit and Risk Committee, Appointed 12 May 2023 – 1 April 2023

Arthur is an established non-executive director, backed with over 30-years' senior executive experience both within the federal and state public services across a number of sectors including finance, health, justice, law and order, emergency services, transport and infrastructure, regulatory, environment and conservation, and superannuation. He is a Board Member and Audit and Risk Committee Chair for Metropolitan Memorial Parks, Advisory Board Member for NSW Ambulance, and Board Member for South Eastern Sydney Local Health District. Arthur is the Audit and Risk Committee Chair for the Commonwealth National Anti-Corruption Commission, NSW Independent Commission Against Corruption, Independent Pricing and Regulatory Tribunal, South Western Sydney Local Health District and NSW Crime Commission and is an Audit and Risk Committee Member of the and Jenolan Caves Reserve Trust.

Experience

Arthur has formerly held key leadership, strategy and finance roles including Financial Controller for Australian Security and Investments Commission, Chief Financial Officer for NSW Department of Justice, Chief Financial Officer for Transport for NSW, Chief Operating Officer for Commonwealth Department of Sustainability, Environment, Water, Population and Communication, Chief Financial Officer for NSW Police, and Executive Director Corporate Services for NSW Department of Environment and Conservation.

Awards

Arthur was awarded the Public Service Medal in January 2015 for outstanding public service to the transport services sector in New South Wales through senior financial planning and management roles.

Education

Bachelor of Business (Accounting and Finance)

Fellow of Australian Society of Certified Practicing Accountants (FCPA)

Member of Australian Institute of Company Directors (MAICD)