

Compliance and enforcement priorities - 2022–23

Bush fire risk
mitigation
Vegetation management

Bush fire risk continues to present the greatest consequence for harm to the people of NSW

Critical Infrastructure
Licence condition
compliance

Critical infrastructure conditions aim to address cyber security risk and overseas threats to electricity infrastructure

Climate change
adaptation

Climate change is driving long term changes to the risks faced by networks

Public safety
Contact with the network

People's behaviour continues to result in accidental contact with the network, often with tragic results

Draft compliance and enforcement priorities - 2023–24

Bush fire risk
mitigation
Field inspections

Bush fire risk continues to present the greatest consequence for harm to the people of NSW

Critical Infrastructure
Licence condition
compliance

Critical infrastructure conditions aim to address cyber security risk and overseas threats to electricity infrastructure

Climate change
adaptation
Loss of supply risk

Climate change is driving long term changes to the risks faced by networks which also impact loss of supply safety risks for long duration interruptions

Public lighting
Licence condition
compliance

Public lighting is provided by the licenced distributors on behalf of the road authorities and mitigates public safety risks on our roads

Draft compliance and enforcement priorities - 2024–25

Bush fire risk mitigation ENSMS

Bush fire risk continues to present the greatest consequence for harm to the people of NSW

Critical Infrastructure Licence condition compliance

Critical infrastructure conditions aim to address cyber security risk and overseas threats to electricity infrastructure

Worker safety risk

The electricity supply industry presents numerous and critical health and safety risks to workers.

Public Safety Asset Management

Assets need to be managed to ensure the long term safety of the network for the public.