

24/7/15

Dear Sid

I am writing to oppose the amalgamation of the City of Sydney Council with any neighbouring councils.

It is not my view that bigger is always better.

The City of Sydney Council already covers a wide area and as all the current developments proceed will have a much larger population to care for.

Yours faithfully
Anne David