

Author name: A. David

Date of submission: Wednesday, 7 March 2018

Submission: As a owner of 3 properties in the upper hunter shire i am impacted on every decision they make. Our rates are already high and with no inflation in wages around the area, a massive decrease in house prices meaning no demand or growth and being drought declared the whole region is in a bad way. if this rates variation goes through it will force many out of the shire Including me causing a further downwards turn in the property market and jobs.