

Author name: A. Jones

Date of submission: Wednesday, 7 March 2018

Submission: This is completely unfair. We pay ridiculously high rates as it is. There is nothing in our town that requires to have such a high rise. And we're expected to just pay this. How about instead of punishing the citizens of this area we encourage the mining companies who use our resources to actually put a lot more back in instead of making their massive profits.