

Author name: A. Kelly

Date of submission: Thursday, July 30, 2015

Submission: I am against the amalgamation of Sydney Council because I have no faith that it will make services better or benefit the community the Council serves - which I naively assume is the main reason for the Council's existence.