

Author name: A. Lawrence

Date of submission: 18 July 2015

Submission: The idea of a mega-council encompassing over 500,000 residents means none will get a proper say in the running of their local areas. The City of Sydney is a dynamic area and requires careful balancing of the needs of residents and businesses, this amalgamation will be disastrous for all.