

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 1 June 2017

Submission: I think it's crazy to increase rates by 28% and with no community consultation that I am aware of. It's obvious why they did not consult the community because no one would have agreed with it. I understand the council needs money to function but a smaller increase percentage I would not have an issue with. A lot of people living in the midcoast council region are on lower incomes making it harder to get by on a day to day basis.