

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 1 March 2018

Submission: I strongly disagree with the proposed increase by Randwick City Council for a rate increase. The letters were sent before Christmas and looked like a newsletter. Everyone is busy at that time of year and this is reflected in the poor response. At this time with the rising cost of living and stagnant wage growth it is untenable to have an increase of this size. The council has always been able to work with the current level of rates and should continue to do so.