

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 1 March 2019

Submission: The rate increase is way too high. Being on the pension with the way cost of living is increasing life is getting harder to survive. The council needs to pull purse strings in as well. If they didn't waste money on stupid court cases they cannot win they wouldn't have needed to ask for such an excessive increase.

As this is a retirement area council is being very unfair to all who are on low wages.