

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 1 October 2021

Your submission for this review:

Yet another cash grab by central coast council... There has been no change to services here since council introduced the stormwater charge either. The rate payers should not have to foot the bill of previous incompetence at council management level. I Most strongly object to councils request to increase any pricing and suggest the previous storm water charge levied at rural residents with no sewer connection be abolished!