Submission: Regarding the rate rise the majority of people can not afford any rise the cost of living is hurting enough. With a high pension and rental area people will be forced to go without because rent WILL go up investors will not absorb the rise rent in this area averages $500 a week now .People need to eat and have an affordable place to live, this new council must all have a silver spoon they like to spend money on anything no matter what the cost regards [REDACTED]
