

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 12 March 2018

Submission: This is possibly the tipping point for us in terms of living in the hawkesbury and owning a home. Making the people of the hawkesbury pay for years of council mismanagement is galling and unreasonable. It's time for council to make economic changes changes rather than tell rate payers to do so.