

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Wednesday, 13 February 2019

Submission: I am disgusted that this rate rise is even being considered. A lot of families are doing it tough already and a rate rise like this will hit my family and many other families hard. Everything is going up but wages aren't , we are continually paying more for everything. Please don't allow this, this will put an enormous pressure on our family and we would have to go without just to pay our rates.