

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 16 June 2017

Submission: I cannot understand the need for increasing our council rates, when we have just amalgamated and pared down the number of councillors and their salaries. They should try more effective budgeting measures now that they have combined, rather than all trying to get more for their individual areas.