

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 2 June 2017

Submission: I object that this rate rise is even being considered. The mergers are supposed to benefit residents not break them, the government must honour the promise for no rate rises and should not be contemplating any let alone a crippling 21.5% hike.