

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 21 February 2019

Submission: Totally against the current SRV.

A responsible business would propose projects they believe are relevant and include detailed cost benefits ,community benefits that form part of a real action plan .This would be done on an annual basis ,the same as any responsible business would do,

They would not waste ratepayers time and money by holding sham consultations sessions ,having already made up their minds .

I do not know anyone that agrees with their request .

The whole process has been a disgrace