

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Sunday, 26 July 2015

Submission: Leichhardt council provides a high level of service to a community that they are in constant touch with. Their services are tailored to the needs of the citizens. I believe this key success factor will be impossible to replicate in a super council as the community will become too large to service.