

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 30 September 2021

Your submission for this review:

Rural zoned farming land should not be charged sewer and stormwater drainage rates. These properties are not connected to sewer nor are they connected to stormwater infrastructure. It is tough enough to make a living from farming without being exposed to councils money grubbing after they lost tens of millions of dollars due to their gross incompetence.