

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Monday, 4 March 2019

Submission: I would ask the council to please take into consideration before increasing the rates that majority of people have not had a pay rise in years and probably won't for years to come. The cost of living is getting well beyond what is manageable. Port Stephens council should listen to the rate payers and put the needs of the people before their own pockets and egos.

