We moved away from Sydney/Southern Highlands and bought in Cootamundra in 2017 as we were due to retire. We moved to this property as we had to live on the age pension and the rates were affordable. We have to spend money at the local tip and do lots of recycling as we have no refuse collection offered. We also use the local car wash as our road is dirt and very dusty, and being on tank water we prefer not to use ours. Of course we have no sewage although we are charged an on-site sewage management fee of $46 annually. We also pay a Rural Waste Charge of $67 annually for what reason we're not sure. We pay for a P.O. Box in town as we have no mail delivery. Our rates have just increased 100% and now they are telling us they will be increasing another 57%. I would like to know why some other residents rates have not gone up, it just seems to be some. I think this is a huge jump for what is on offer here.
