

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 8 April 2021

Submission: These increases are ridiculous. Why are farmers constantly being knocked. We get water taken off us and then have massive increases forced on the remainder. Environmental planning and protection, fish passage, water quality monitoring, etc. These services are in the public interest, and need to be provided regardless of irrigators. Government must pay a larger share of these costs.