

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 8 March 2018

Submission: The area has suffered due to a downturn in the mining industry and most families I know are now managing on less money than they used to. Many permanent jobs for miners have been replaced by contractors on a substantially lower rate. I don't believe the rate rise is affordable for a lot of the shires residents.