

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Thursday, 8 March 2018

Submission: This council should not get this variation approved. The current operations could be streamlined to run more efficiently and waste less money. If approved, this variation will add SEVERE financial pressure to thousands of local families, already struggling with rising water and electricity costs to name a few amongst the high cost of living. I dont think any benefit from the rise will outweigh the negatives.