

Author name: Anonymous

Date of submission: Friday, 9 March 2018

Submission: I am against this special rate rise.

This council has spent money on ridiculous things that do not help the community and now that they have run out of money, they want to slug the rate payers to pay for the short fall. Rates are already expensive and the council needs to manage their money better.