Two Who this may concern.

I attended the meeting at Evans Head on 6 Feb about the Rate Rise.

And yes a small town can really let off steam I am 81 $\frac{1}{2}$  and have lived in Evans for 22 yrs the last 11 $\frac{1}{2}$  on my own as I lost my husband to heart & lung problems so I have really struggled you try living off what a single age pensioner gets, With the cost of living & interest rate at 2.3% doesn't cover my house insurance & now our Council wants to go for a 5.5% or even 7% they are trying to make out Evans Head will turn into a big Gold Coast after the By Pass is done No way that there is, no land unless they want to build on heath or the Albo have it tied up for those secret doos. The Casino Council have gone over board building that big Sale yards I come from a family of Cattle I am a wife of a milk & Pig farmer till health forced us to sell & now you still havent got the Sale yards finished Next there wont be any cattle with floods up North & drought everywhere in Old NSW & WA wake up please. I could go on & on but I need my sleep

Betty Hyde. home owner

& no Rate Rose who did they phone no one I heard in Evans Head over it only lies
