

Author name: B. Roche

Date of submission: Sunday, July 19, 2015

Submission: Dear IPART

The main virtue of local council is its small size and capacity to respond to the particular needs of its residents. City of Sydney council is too big as it is to do this optimally. By increasing its size we will only further lose the benefits of any remaining close relationship between elected officials and residents. Please don't do it!

Yours

Brian Roche

