

Author name: C. Bell

Date of submission: Tuesday, July 21, 2015

Submission: I do not think the City of Sydney should be forced to amalgamate with any other Council. It is already large enough, if size is any guarantee of efficiency and has a unique mix of residential and commercial "residents". Its expertise in balancing these responsibilities would be diluted by amalgamation.