Submission: in my view council has more than enough in the bank to work with. I was layed of work like most tradesmen here but unlike most it was because of a bad back so for the next 17 years till iam 67 will be on the dole and carn,t afford it now Also before Nuatali Nelmes became mayor she voted against a rate rise when she was in opposition saying the council had not done enough however on the very, very first day in the lord mayor role without anything happening she wants rate rise of this horrific magnatude
