

Author name: D. Fodor

Date of submission: Sunday, 17 November 2024

Your submission for this review:

18% increase is massive and will bring the quarterly bill over $200 for most apartments let alone houses. This is completely unfair and seems to be money grabbing. This is more than triple of the current rate of inflation. In a time when households are being squeezed for every penny, this is not the time for Sydney water to be jumping on the band wagon.