

Author name: F. Vechi

Date of submission: 31 July 2015

Submission: Do not amalgamate the city of Sydney with other councils. The city is special and as a major tourist, business and economic hub of Australia the City of Sydney has unique requirements, projects and infrastructure needs. Amalgamation will just mimic the inefficiencies of state government ... Keep the councils small so they can work closely with residents.