

Author name: G. Sheehan

Date of submission: Tuesday, 11 October 2022

Your submission for this review:

Interesting that IPART only considers costs facing councils without giving a rats about the costs currently overwhelming constituents. What a shame state governments offloaded rates decisions to IPART so ratepayers can no longer hold them accountable at the ballot box. IPART needs to take account of how local councils waste ratepayer funds up the wall such as Coffs Harbour's unneeded new $200M "cultural centre" while local infrastructure crumbles!