

Author name: J. Abbott

Date of submission: Saturday, 3 June 2017

Submission: The council had minimal consultation with ratepayers and has, I believe, largely ignored submissions. The amalgamation of the three councils was supposed to save money and should reduce rates so there should be no need to increase them. This shows incompetence by the current administration and the management team should be sacked and a new administrator appointed.