

Author name: J. Ellis

Date of submission: Thursday, 1 March 2018

Submission: The prices have gone up and we still don't have a centre in Taree. It's not worth driving all the way to Forster to recycle and the last time I was there only 1 plastic outlet was working and no glass ones. People in the country are being overlooked again