

Author name: J. Ellyard

Date of submission: Thursday, July 23, 2015

Submission: I am writing in support of Leichhardt Council remaining a standalone council.

There is clear evidence that the council is financially viable on its own. I consider that the interests of the residence of Leichhardt are well met within the existing structure and a larger council would not offer service improvements that would justify any change.