

Author name: J. Hill

Date of submission: Tuesday, July 14, 2015

Submission: I object to huge council amalgamation as proposed. Too large an area, too many ratepayers resulting in a lack of local knowledge application, a lack of accountability and loss of financial control. The City of Sydney is working well, delivering contemporary projects, providing local support to organisations and is financially viable. I can't imagine any benefit from a mega council formation.