

Author name: J. Hodgson

Date of submission: Monday, 22 February 2016

Submission: If Council recently achieved "stand alone" status from IPART, why would it need to apply to IPART for an increase in rates of such magnitude.

Over the past few years Council has wasted quite a bit of money on useless enquiries (both internal and external) which also lead to the engagement of consultants and expensive legal costs.