

Author name: J. Joyce

Date of submission: Wednesday, 7 March 2018

Submission: We pay rates, taxes and stamp duties for exactly this purpose... Why the need to slug the rate payer more when there are other avenues such as requesting funding from state government who is running in surplus or borrowing the money for works and pay it back through normal revenue raising. If they can't balance books and raise enough revenue currently then the council should be dissolved and new elections held.