

Author name: J. Leong

Date of submission: Thursday, 16 July 2015

Submission: The concept of Council is to have local people managing their own affair concerning their living environment, not only present material standard, but also future aspirations. This has much to do with social harmony and community spirit. To big a Council consisting people of too many diverse groups will defeat the purposes.