

From: John Spatchurst
Sent: Friday, 17 July 2015 9:20 AM
To: Local Government Mailbox
Subject: Fit for the Future Proposals: City of Sydney

Amalgamating Sydney City Council with other Councils makes no sense. It works well at its present size, small enough to maintain contact with the electorate and big enough to finance desirable and necessary improvements to the City. Most important of all, it is corruption free in an area notorious for self-interest and pork barreling.

John Spatchurst