Submission: The federal budget, less money for single parents, higher uni fees, medical co payment. Today the news about the GST and tonight a price hike in gas. What else do we have to cope with next?

I am divorces, 2 boys, one still at school, the other at Uni. I work fulltime and try very hard. Maybe someone can show me how to keep going.

We don't smoke, we don't go on hollidays, we don't have foxtel,we watch every penny and consider carefully our expenses.
