

Author name: K. McQueen

Date of submission: 15 July 2015

Submission: I strongly oppose the idea of a mega council for the City of Sydney. The city of Sydney council is so well run and organised, the thought of merging with inferior run councils will jeopardise all the great work that the city of Sydney has done and future plans. And I don't see the benefits of merging.