Subject: RATE RISE OBJECTION

To whom it may concern;

As a local resident with a young family trying to enter the property market and build a family home in the coming year, I would like to make a formal objection to the proposed rate rise you have planned to roll out.

It's no secret the property prices have exploded along with the cost of electricity ect. A rate rise such as the one proposed would significantly impact on our financial situation.

Thank you

Kind Regards
