

Author name: M. Visotina

Date of submission: Thursday, 16 July 2015

Submission: The argument for amalgamation of Strathfield Council with other Inner West Councils is not sustainable in view of Strathfield Councils superior governance over many years when compared to the majority of adjoining councils whose rates, infrastructure and record of good financial management is poor. This will mean that Strathfield residents would be relatively worse off in any amalgamation. If it can't broke, leave it alone!