

Author name: N. Schofield

Date of submission: Sunday, July 05, 2015

Submission: The City of Sydney is fit for the future having created a healthy financial position over the past 12 years under the Independent Team. It is one of the very few councils in New South Wales to be able to claim that accolade. It has progressive plans guiding infrastructure in Sydney's CBD such as public transport and culture corridors. It should not suffer any disruptive and expensive amalgamations at this time.