1) If Sydney Water acquires Hawkesbury City Councils wastewater assets, the fairest option is for Sydney Water to spread the associated costs over the entirety of its customer base. It is unfair to apportion higher costs to Hawkesbury residents; they should receive the same wastewater bill as the rest of the customer base. 2) The aim should be to provide the best wastewater service at the most affordable price to all of Sydney Water's customers equitably. How Sydney Water manages that task should not punish one sector of its customer base.
